HARDING DECLINES WOMEN'S REQUEST TO USE INFLUENCE

To Have Another Republican Legislature Vote Suffrage

SAYS HE IS WILLING TO ADVISE IF HE IS ASKED

Management of His Campaign Is Now in Hands of Committee Of Twenty-One

By The Associated Press:

Washington, June 22.—Management of the national republican campaign was entrusted today to an executive committee of 21 members headed by Chairman Hays of the party's national committee. Seven women have places on the executive committee.

Announcement of the membership of the executive committee, and the compostion of two committees to arrange for the notification of Senator Harding, the party's presidential nominee, and of Governor Coolidge, vice-presidential candidate, ended a two days conference in which Mr. Harding, Chairman Hays and a special sub-committee of the national committee participated.

While the sub-committee was concluding its conference, Senator Harding received a group of suffragists and in reply to their request for a statement on the suffrage question, declared that while he could not with propriety attempt to force any state to hasten action on the federal suffrage amendment, he would recommend ratification should any state officially seek his opinion.

Deeply Disappointed.

The suffragists numbering 26 from 21 states through their spokesman, Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the national womans party, in presenting their request made, veiled threats of throwing their support to a third party unless ratification of the suffrage amendment was completed through the action of a republican state legislature. Miss Paul tonight said her delegation was "deeply disappointed with Senator Harding's position."

In the appointment of the executive committee, the subcommittee diverted from the usual practice of confining membership to the national organization and took in Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus, Ohio, Senator Harding's pre-convention manager. The appointments as announced today included only twenty names, but Mr. Hays said the additionalmember, who also would not be a member of the national committee, would be announced later.

Senator Forestalled Them.

The meeting between Senator Harding and the suffrage deputation took place at his office in the capital, and lasted more than an hour. The suffragists had gone to the capital with prepared statements, but the senator's action in presenting his views first caused them to change their plans and simply state their request for a definition of the nominee's position.

Miss Paul, in her statement tonight said:

"I can hardly believe that a candidate, nominated to stand for a specific platform could within two weeks after that platform's adoption declare himself unable to do anything toward carrying it out. We are deeply disappointed with Senator Harding's position. Our delegation to him today was the first step in a campaign to place before the country his responsibility as the head of his party for his party's inaction on suffrage in those states in which it is in power. Until he recognizes and acts effectively on that responsibility we shall not be content."

Senator Harding continued his consultations with party leaders today. Before leaving Washington tonight for New York Mr. Hays announced that no eastern or western campaign managers were contemplated as he would substitute himself for both of these former officers, dividing his time between Chicago and New York.

Miss Mary Kihm, his secretary for more than 27 years, received a bequest of $50,000 together with a $6,000 annuity for the remainder of her life. Every other person who was in his employ for a year or more, was bequeathed $100 for each year of service.

BAD MATTERS GET WORSE IN IRELAND

Martial Law Urged In Londonderry Where Situation Is Extremely Grave

By The Associated Press:

Londonderry, June 22.—A meeting of the magistrates this afternoon decided to send a second urgent request to Dublin Castle for military reinforcements and the institution of martial law. Telegrams were sent to the attorney general urging the necessity of the immediate dispatch of troops. The city was quiet this afternoon.

Ask for Martial Law.

Dublin, June 22.—Citizens of Londonderry have requested the Irish government to send more troops to that city. They urge that control of the city be assumed by competent military authority and that martial law be proclaimed. The situation in Londonderry is regarded as extremely grave.

Police Ambushed.

Dublin, June 22.—A police bicycle patrol of four was ambushed today near Bantry. One constable, named Brest, was killed and a sergeant and another constable were wounded.

Home Rule Bill Impotent.

By The Associated Press.

London, June 22.—During a discussion on the Irish home rule bill in the house of commons today Lord Robert Cecil declared his conviction that not a single member of the government had the slightest belief that the home rule bill would do anything whatever to solve the Irish question.

Demands Martial Law.

By The Associated Press:

London, June 22.—In discussing in the house of commons today the rioting in Londonberry, Lieutenant Colonel Wilfred Ashley, unionist, declared that victory rested with the assassins and not with the government, which appeared powerless to maintain the sanctity of life. The chief secretary for Ireland and the viceroy, he said, were prisoners in their own houses; the officials of Dublin castle were equally prisoners and obliged to take exercise in the castle grounds. The nations of the world will be pointing the finger of scorn at England's inability to maintain her authority in Ireland. He demanded martial law and more troops.

Appeal to Belfast.

Belfast, June 22.—The Evening Telegraph issues an appeal to the citizens not to follow the example of Londonderry, saying:

"We would appeal to those who may be anxious for reprisals to be patient. Nothing would delight the rebel party more than to see the city turned upside down by disturbances and bloodshed. To play into their hands would be a grave mistake. The duty of every patriotic man is to support the authorities in restoring and maintaining law and order."

NEED OF BETTER TRAINING FOR WOMEN IN INDUSTRY

By The Associated Press:

Topeka, Kan., June 21.—The need of better forewomen in industry and of improved training for the women workers was emphasized here recently by Miss Linna Bresette, secretary of the Kansas welfare commission.

"Often at present," said Miss Bresette, "there is a scarcely any training for the women. An applicant frequently is taken to a departme where she is given practically no inspection by the forewoman and placed on a machine. The number of new workers of this kind is not limited. I often find a large group of girls all 'green'. This means loss of production, waste of material, discouragement to workers and confusion to the forewomen.

"Not long ago I visited a factory where the payroll showed a full week's wage for less than 25 per cent of the girls. Asked the reason, the foreman said, 'Oh, the girls are always changing jobs, they are never satisfied', and with that much the subject was dismissed. There must be an answer.

"Labor turnover, absenteeism and tardiness are some of the reasons for the greatest loss in industry. In the first place the forewoman is often not instructed in her own job and therefore does not understand the great necessity for studying all jobs carefully for making proper selections of workers for the jobs."

Miss Bresette declared a better selection of forewomen is needed—women who recognize and appreciate the human side of industry and not concentrate alone on production.

PRESIDENT VIEWS STRIKE SITUATION AS GROWN BETTER

Decides No Action By The Government Necessary Now

BROTHERHOOD HEADS ASK MEN TO RETURN TO PLACES

Tieup at Baltimore Seems To Be Worst While Philadelphia Reports Improvement

By The Associated Press:

Washington, June 22.—A report on the railroad strike situation was laid before President Wilson at today's cabinet meeting by Secretary Payne, acting in his capacity as director general of the railway administration but action was delayed after President Wilson declared that the situation was so improved that action was not necessary by the government.

The general opinion in the cabinet was that since the wage award of the railway labor board, when made, would be retroactive to last May 1, other action would be unnecessary unless the strike took a far more serious turn.

Secretary Payne's report on the situation was prepared after conferences with W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, and other labor leaders.

Leaders Advise Patience.

New Haven, Conn., June 22.—The following statement was made by the general chairmen of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen; Order of Railway Conductors, and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, this afternoon.

"It is true there is much unrest among railway employes and there is good reason on account of the long delay in the wage increase being granted to them, which is caused by the failure of the railway administration to grant an increase prior to the end of federal control; also to the failure of the railroads to agree to an increase of wages at conferences held with representatives of the organizations in March, 1920.

"In April, 1920, the labor board was created as provided for in the transportation act of 1920. Since then this board has functioned and it is our understanding that all members have devoted their entire time to hearings and considerations of the wage questions submitted.

"It was the original plan of the labor board to grant a temporary decision at an early date and a final decision later on. However, we are advised today by executive officers, from the best information they can obtain, that a complete and final decision will be made on or before July 9, and we therefore believe that all men in engine and train service should remain at work pending a decision of the labor board, as no benefit or gain can be obtained by leaving the service at this time."

Situation Reported Better.

Philadelphia, June 22.—There was no apparent change in the yardmen's strike tonight. Strike leaders reported gains, but railroad officials declared these were offset by men returning to work. Freight traffic was reported improved on the three lines entering this city. Passenger service is normal.

James P. Casey, chairman of lodge 75, Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen, predicted today after a meeting of strikers that at least 800 men would return to work tomorrow.

On addressing the meeting, Mr. Casey told the men they would not lose their seniority if they would return tomorrow, but unless they did he was uncertain what steps the railroad would take. At other meetings, however, strikers voted to stay out until their grievances are satisfactorily adjusted.

Tied Up at Baltimore.

Baltimore, June 22.—Despite orders of the Brotherhood chiefs, threats of loss of priority and warnings from officials of both the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads, setting time limits for return to work under pain of dismissal from the service, nearly five hundred yardmen of the two companies remained out tonight, according to the strike leaders. They said about 350 Baltimore and Ohio men and about 190 Pennsylvania men were on strike. Not over 30 per cent of the normal force were at work today and freight traffic was considerably hampered, they declared.

No freight was received with the exception of perishable foodstuffs. There are 1,800,000 bushels of wheat in the elevators and only small quantities in cars at terminals. During the last 24 hours only about 100,000 bushels had been moved.

STILL ANOTHER PARTY HAS PLATFORM AND ALL

By The Associated Press:

Zion iCty, Ill., June 21.—Among the many parties of presidential year one of the most unusual is the Theocratic Party of this city. It has the political platform adopted by this place.

The Theocratic Party's platform was recently read by City Clerk Alvin Marshall at a meeting of the city council. The mayor and aldermen for the five wards were present, and the ceremony was regarded by those present as very impressive.

The party motto is set forth in the third of the five planks:

"We declare the motto of our party to be the unalterable and unassailable truth that 'Where God rules, man prospers.'"

HARNESS HORSES IN BEST OF CONDITION

Classy Racing In Sight For People At Fair Grounds Track If The Weather Behaves

Tomorrow afternoon marks the opening of the three day's racing program to be held at the Lamar County Fair Grounds. The event bids fair to be the most successful ever held by the association, both in point of interest and the quality of horses entered for the various races.

Secretary Caviness stated yesterday that the entries for the three days would possibly exceed one hundred head of horses and these animals are the pick of Texas and other states. Every race is full, and promises to be warmly contested.

This summer racing will be a big boost for the fall racing, as it will enable owners that heretogore had to condition their horses in other stat to keep them in Texas, thus insuring better and faster racing when the fall meets start.

All the horses at the fair grounds are in good shape for the opening, Thursday, the preliminary touch to their training having been put on the racers yesterday and Monday. The rains interfered to some extent with training plans yesterday, but most of the horsemen are early birds and had their flyers worked out before the rains came.

The track will be gone over today and put in the best condition possible. The course was already in fine condition, and the rain, if it holds off now, will not do any damage. With the number of speedsters that have been entered in the various three days' events, it would not be surprising o at least see some local track records shattered, as there are some fast steppers waiting for the word to go.

Ed Mayer, official starter, will act in his usual capacity, which will insure satisfaction for both public and horsemen alike.

SHRINERS IN PORTLAND ARE MAKING GREAT SHOW

By The Associated Press:

Portland, Oregon, June 22.—The Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, made a net gain of 74,725 in membership last year, according to the report submitted by the imperial recorder to the annual imperial reunion which opened here tonight.

Seventy temples were represented in a parade today which provided one of the most gorgeous displays of color this city has witnessed. The Shrine colors—green, red and yellow—predominated, with an occasional touch of white and gold.

Arrivals today brought the total number of special Shriner trains to sixty-one. Many visitors are living on the trains.

SHORT HORN CATTLE BOUGHT BY SMILEY

Fancy Price Paid For Animals In Missouri By Lamar County Breeder

M. L. Smiley of Brookston, the well known stock farmer, returned Monday from Missouri, where he attended a sale of shorthorn cattle.

While he was at the sale he bought twenty-one head, for which he paid the fancy price of $19,000, averaging nearly $1,000 each, although some of them were calves. C. J. Hathaway, who was in the city yesterday, stated that the cattle were expected to arrive within the next four or five days.

Mr. Smiley, who has attained the distinction of being one of the most prominent breeders of thoroughbred cattle in Texas, will undoubtedly have his latest purchase on exhibition at the Lamar County fair in the fall, and they will add a great deal to the attractiveness of the fair.

The stock show is becoming a more important feature each year, and the exhibits rank with the best in the State.

PROHIBITION THE LEADING ISSUE OF PLATFORM MAKING

Will Overshadow The League of Nations In Importance

BURLESON DEMANDS REPEAL DRASTIC ABSURD PROVISIONS

Being Regarded As President Wilson's Spokesman Postmaster General's Action Carries Weight.

By The Associated Press:

San Francisco, June 22.—Postmaster General Burleson's statement today at San Antonio, regarding democratic platform issues, drew particular attention among party leaders here for the national convention, next week, because of its frank declaration for modification of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act.

Mr. Burleson's demand for repeal of "drastic and absurd" provisions of the act expressed in more direct fashion views which some party leaders here previously had voiced privately. Coming from a member of President Wilson's cabinet the statement was regarded as a possible intimation of the administration's attitude on the prohibition issue before the convention.

Senator Glass of Virginia, who is due here tomorrow, is understood to have been entrusted with a formal expression of President Wilson's views as to the platform. On other occasions, however, the postmaster general has been the direct spokesman of the president on important issues and democrats here were inclined to take his expression as to the prohibition plank as more than a statement of his own view.

Prohibition Leading Issue.

The preliminary convention discussion in progress here, while wholly informal, has shown a striking unanimity of opinion on two points. The first is, that the platform struggle will be the real fight of the convention the second, that the prohibition plank will be the chief issue in that fight, out-rivaling the League of Nations declaration in interest among the delegates.

In the league issue, W. J. Bryan, already stands directly opposed to President Wilson's views as to the party attitude that dates back to the Jackson day dinner when Mr. Wilson urged that the democrats enter the campaign on the issue of ratification of the league covenant without material reservation. The former secretary of state stood just as strongly for acceptance of the republican senate reservations as a basis for ratification and in order to keep the league covenant out of the campaign.

Clash is in Prospect.

If Mr. Burleson's statement is to be accepted as representing the president's views on prohibition, delegates said, it now was evident that Bryan and the administration forces were to clash also over that plank. Mr. Bryan's views are known to be rigidly against any weakening of the prohibition laws. There is also, it was said, a third point on which the president and his former secretary might lock horns. It was recalled that when the president asked congress for the authority to accept a mandate over Armenia under the league of nations, Mr. Bryan promptly issued a statement in final opposition to such a program. It has been regarded as possible that the president might seek to have the convention indorse his course as to Armenia, and if so, it was said, the Nebraska leader could be expected to exert his influence against such action.

Pending arrival of Senator Glass, Mr. Burleson and Mr. Bryan the few party leaders and delegates already on the ground have been exchanging only gossip comment on pending issues. There have been no conferences and there is little activity among workers for various candidates for the presidential nomination.

Headquarters for John W. Davis of West Virginia were opened today. However, presidential row has not yet become even a shadow of what it will be, or of what it was during the republican convention at Chicago.

Pensacola, June 22.—The first case of bubonic plague developed here May 31, one week before the outbreak in Vera Cruz according to statements made today by Dr. R. N Green, state health officer, and Dr. S. R. M. Kennedy, United States public health officer here.

The announcement was made after disinterment and examination of the body of Melvin Johnson, negro, who was taken ill here May 31 and died June 2. Examination and laboratory tests, it was anounced, showed unmistakable evidence that Johnson died of the plague.

HUMBLE HERO SWIMS CREEK TO SAVE LIFE

After Setting Danger Signals He Stays Out of House Because Not Properly Dressed

By The Associated Press:

Omaha, Neb., June 22.—In the recent South Dakota floods John Williams, section foreman, swam a swollen creek at night in a hailstorm to warn a passenger train that a bridge had gone out. He stripped himself and tied the danger signal to his back. After he had set them, he approached a nearby house, then remembering his negligee, he swam back across the 600 feet of swirling current.

The passenger train, it developed later, was stopped farther up the road at a point where the railroad men had little hope of halting it. Williams' heroism however, was not overlooked by the railroad officials.

The bridge was the Burlington's, over Hat creek, Ardmore, S. D. The Hat creek flood tied up traffic for eight days, cost seven lives, and did $500,000 damage to the one road.

Several days after the flood the section foreman was looked up by a newspaper man from the city. He found him directing a gang of laborers repairing the washout.

Creek Started on Rampage.

Williams related how it had been raining through the previous weeks and the April blizzard had left the ground soaked, so that when the last storm came on it ran off as if from a duck's back "and old Hat creek started on a rampage."

"I kept watching the new bridge over the creek all afternoon," Williams told his visitor, "and water kept cogin' up and comin' no until it reached the ties. Then I got worried for fear the bridge would go out and I went back to town and reported about it to the operator. He told the dispatcher at Alliance about it. The telephone and telegraph wires runnin' west had all gone down and we couldn't get Edgemont or anyone west of the creek. Jack Welch, the dispatcher at Alliance, talked to me over the railroad phone and asked me if I could get to the west end of the bridge across the creek, and put out a red light and some stop signals so as to hold the night passonger train No. 42 which was due at 9 o'clock. I told him I'd try and went back to the bridge.

"When I got there again the water was clear over the top of the bridge and it looked to me like one of the steel spans had gone out. We'd tried to phone the government farm on the other side to ask them to go out and put out a red light but their phone was gone and we couldn't reach anybody.

"Well, I just figgered the chances was probably against me gettin' across but it was only my life against 15 passengers on No. 42, and I figgered that the train would be runnin' pretty fast when they came up to the bridge, and they might be into it before they saw it, so I walked up the ckeek a half mile, stripped off my clothes, tied my red lantern, red flag and torpedoes to my back, and swum across.

Temperature of Water.

"There wasn't so many trees out there and she was only about 600 feet wide but the water was full of hailstones and cold as hell. It was rainin' to beat the band and dark as blazes. I sure felt good when I hit that fence on the other side and drug myself up the bank."

"How did you get back to Ardmore," Williams was asked, after he related how he placed the signals.

"Well, I walked up to the government house but when I got close to the office and saw the bright lights there I remembered I didn't have no clothes on and thought I'd be a pretty lookin' sight bustin' in on 'em like that, so I walked back up the stream and swum back."

MOORE REPLIES TO M'COMB CRITICISM OF THE PRESIDENT

Says Wilson Had Admiration And Sympathy Of Party

CRITIC FELL INTO ERROR OF USING HIS SARCASM

Governor Cox's Campaign Manager Stands Up For "Titular Head of Party" who is also rPesident

By The Associated Press:

San Francisco, June 22.—"No man will get anywhere by subjecting the president to either open attack or sneering reference," said E. H. Moore, manager of the campaign of Governor Cox of Ohio, for the democratic presidential nomination in a statement today replying to the charge made by Wm. F. McCombs of New York, that the president has been "autocratic" in assumption of authority.

Mr. Moore's statment said:

"My attention has been called to a statement made by Mr. McCombs attacking the League of Nations and incidentally the president.

"Mr. McCombs, who is my friend and for whose ability I have always had a high regard, has fallen into the error of many men who have the fatal gift of sarcasm and who cannot resist the temptation to say things which do irreparable damage to the cause they represent.

"The surest method of having the democratic platform make the League of Nations the leading issue is for its enemies to attack the president. President Wilson had not only the admiration of the democratic party, but its entire sympathy in his effort to advance the cause of humanity. Besides being the titular head of the democratic party he is also president of the United States and no man will get anywhere by subjecting him to either open attack or sneering references.

SUGGESTS REFERRING ALAND ISLANDS ROW TO THE LEAGUE

By The Associated Press.

London, June 23.—The London Times announces it has reasons to believe that representations have been addressed the Swedish and Finnish government on behalf of the allied and associated powers to the effect that Sweden and Finland should refer the question of sovereignty of the Aland Islands to the leagueof nations.

Sweden desires a plebiscite in the Aland Islands, which are situated in the Baltic between Finland and Sweden, claiming the majority of the population is of Swedish origin. Finland however, is holding out against separation of the archipelago from Finland on the ground that they are more nearly connected with the Finnish mainland and are definitely divided from Sweden.

Included among arrivals were Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, chairman of the league's national finance committee; Mrs. George Gellhorn of St. Louis, and Miss Della Dortch of Nashville, Tenn.

The program of the national league of women voters deals chiefly with legislation affecting women and children.

SOCIALISTS WIN POWER IN THE BERLIN ELECTIONS

By The Associated Press:

Berlin, June 22.—Independent socialists scored an overwhelming victory in the first election for the municipal council since the inclusion of the outer suburbs in greater Berlin, which next to New York is now the largest city, so far as area is concerned.

Eighty-eight out of the 225 seats were won by independent socialists, while the social democrats elected 38 councillors. These two socialist factions, which co-operate in municipal politics, therefore will have a decisive majority.

The same rule will apply to State, district and county applcants for office.

PAY ATTENTION TO YOUR REPRESENTATIVES.

For the past many years there has been an appeal on the part of the people of Texas for such reform in the judiciary as shall result in less cost and speedier adjudication of cases.

The legislature has not harkened to this appeal. Instead, it has spent a lot of time philandering about with local bills (which are in themselves a tremendous evil when their full effect is considered) and playing politics.

The best that the legislature can do, apparently, is merely to add more district courts to the already numerous courts which are necessary under the present cumbersome system.

The supreme court is in need of reform—badly in need of it. It is several years behind with the work and is getting further behind each year despite the efforts of the members of commission of appeals to catch up with the business.

The special session created more district courts —added more expense to the judicial system for the litigants and the taxpayers to bear. That was all they could do under the circumstances; but it would really appear that the people of Texas might take sufficient interest in their law-makers to elect men of ability to the seats who will patriotically serve their State and be not eternally looking for self glorification or for playing little politics.

The Morning News has sought to impress upon the people of Lamar county one most important fact—that there is no more important office for them to fill than the position of representatives and senator.

Those men make the laws which govern the actions and control the business of the people as a whole. An incompetent man or a man who does not truly represent his district is an actual detriment to his district and to the State as a whole.

Take this one matter of judicial reform as an instance. It has been hanging fire for these dozen years; the evils complained of are well known and some of the brainiest men in Texas have offered solutions.

But the majority of the members of the legislature are not intent upon bringing relief to the people of the State, apparently, and they annually—for there are so many special sessions that the legislature now meets every year— return to their constituents with a lot of bull about what they have done; and give no account of the serious matters which they not only have neglected but deliberately so.

Inform yourselves strictly concerning the merits of the men who would represent you in the house of representative and the senate; for if you send the wrong man to Austin he may play the very devil with you and your county.

VACANT BUSINESS LOTS

The Morning News is in receipt of several compliments upon its editorial on the matter of the vacant business lots. But none of them come from the owners of said lots save one; and that was not altogether a compliment. That gentleman said he was somewhat shocked to find The Morning News an advocate of the single tax.

It is not exactly that. The Morning News carefully explained in that editorial that it is not an advocate of the single tax. In this particular instance it is an advocate of the double tax—one for the vacant property and another for the building which is not on it but which would be occupied by a business if one were there.

With the water question solved and the vacant lots filled, Paris would strike a faster gait; but with those handicaps there is no reason to wonder why we do not make a better showing in the census.

THE FILTERS.

The sand for the filters having arrived, it is to be presumed that there will be no time lost now in installing the system; after more than a year, during which the muddy and unfiltered water has been forced upon the people of Paris. At least it is to be hoped so.

The Morning News has not given up hope that the city council will undertake a survey of the Round Prairie proposition before presenting its plan to the people of the city.

In fact, it will be the thing to do to convince the people that the city council is really endeavoring to find a solution which will solve the problem of pure water and in sufficient quantity for a city of 50,000.

Water is the one thing—the only thing—which is holding Paris back now.

All other things may wait until that problem has been satisfactorily solved.

CUTTING THE WEEDS.

The Morning News was very pleased to publish the brief news item to the effect that Chief Harrel is going to insist that the weeds on the vacant lots be cut. The Chief is to be highly commended for that move.

In the first place, there should be mighty few vacant lots in Paris—mighty few. In the second place, weeds are unsightly, insanitary and a detriment and a drawback to the surroundingt property. In the third place, they are the mark of the village—and we of Paris are no longer of the village variety.

ANDERSON STARTS TO BIG DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

W. H. P. Anderson of Paris left yesterday for San Francisco to attend the big national democratic convention as a delegate from the First Congressional district, and was accompanied by W. R. Douglas of Arthur City, who went as a visitor.

Both of them were provided with cards to hand out that advertised Paris as a city that "Distributes, manufactures and markets a greater volume of products than any other city within 100 miles radius;" and as "The city that lost 1440 buildings by fire March 21, 1916, and has since built back over 3,000."

The cards gave further interesting information that wa sprovided by the Chamber of Commerce.

BRICKLAYING HAS BEGUN ON NEW CITY HALL

The first brick on the new city hall building and fire station at the corner of 21st and Kaufman streets was laid Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Contractor Walter White stated yesterday that they were having considerable trouble in the caving of the foundation in the deep excavation on account of the excessive rains. He stated that he hoped to have the building ready to be occupied by November 1 before winter sets in.

A TEMPORARY CROSSING WILL BE MADE TODAY.

County Commissioner R. B. Smith and the Austin Bridge company will fix the bridge at Pine Creek temporarily today so that the public can resume traffic over it, providing that it quits raining long enough for them to do the work. The travel has been detouring around the bridge about ten days, but the rains have made it impossible to detour at present, and the putting in of a temporary crossing is a necessity.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM BROTHER IN GERMANY.

B. Rombach is in receipt of a letter from his brother, who lives in Southern Germany, in which he describes the condition of affairs in that country. He says that the farmers are the only people who have any money. He describes them as rolling in wealth and as having more money than they know what to do with.

But while the farmers are enjoying great prosperity he said that the other people were starving. Everything costs six times as much as it did before the war. A cow costs $1,000 on account of Germany having to turn over so many to France to pay what it took away from occupied territory during the war.

Making Rapid Improvement.

R. R. Allen of Glory, who was in the city yesterday remarked that he never saw crops advance as rapidly as they have during the past ten days. He said that if the farmers could get ten days more of favorable weather the crops would be like the used to be.

Oil Syndicate Charter.

Among the charters that have just been filed at Austin is one by the Paris Oil Syndicate of Paris with a capital stock of $10,000. The names of the incorporators given are E. A. Mossman, Nellie Moye and D. R. Jones.

Some Sign of Oil.

L. A. Nance has returned from a trip to Alpine, where he went to look after a section of land that he owns in Brewster county. He stated that some oil had been struck near his land, but that it hadn't been tested out yet, and it was not known what it would amount to.

BUFORD SPERRY REJOINS NAVY AT SAN FRANCISCO

Buford Sperry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sperry, left yesterday afternoon to resume service in the navy. When he first enlisted it was for the duration of the war in active service.

After the war he enlisted in the reserve with the choice of again joining the regular navy if he should desire. Since he left the navy there has been a raise in pay, and as a farther inducement to get the reserves to return to the regular navy a law has been enacted granting them four months back pay.

He went from here to Dallas, and from there will go to San Francisco where he will go aboard ship for some foreign waters.

RURAL CARRIER HAS TO LEAVE BUGGY BEHIND.

The mail carrier out of Paris on the Arthur City road had to abandon his horse and buggy two miles north of Hinckley on the return trip yesterday afternoon on account of high water in the creek. He crossed the railroad trestle and walked back toward town until he met up with County Engineer Fooshee and Commissioner Smith, who brought him in their automobile.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Baby Possum Changes His Mind.

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Reddy Fox sat at the foot of the black birch tree in a hollow of which Baby Possum was hiding. Reddy scratched his head and tried to think what could have made Baby Possum suddenly lose his appetite. Reddy had tried to tempt Baby Possum to go with him for some nice fresh eggs, and Baby Possum actually had started down the tree. Then, like a flash, he had suddenly changed his mind and had gone back. What Reddy Fox did not know was that Baby Possum had seen a funny little fellow with long ears stick his head out from behind a big pine tree and shake it, and then had decided that it was best not to come down.

"Such a little fellow as Baby Possum hasn't got much sense. He must be getting lonesome by this time, so I'll just try another plan," thought Reddy Fox. So in his gentlest, softest voice, he called:

"Baby Possum! Baby Possum!"

There was no answer, so after a few minutes Reddy Fox tried again. "Baby Possum! Baby Possum! I have a message for you," he called.

Baby Possum heard and poked his sharp little face out of the safe, snug little hollow in which he was hiding. Right down underneath him was the same fine gentleman in red who had invited him to go for some eggs. As soon as Reddy Fox saw Baby Possum he began to talk in his softest, pleasantest voice.

"Baby Possum," said he, "your mother sent me to find you and bring you home. She is over in the big hollow tree crying her eyes out for her lost baby, and all your brothers and sisters are crying, too."

"Ah, don't care," said Baby Possum.

Now all the time he did care, and he was beginning to wish himself safely back in the dear old hollow tree. Reddy Fox pretended that he did not hear and kept right on talking.

"And your father, dear old Uncle Billy Possum, is so worried that he is almost crazy," continued Reddy Fox. "He has tramped through the Green Forest looking for you until he is almost too tired to move."

"Ah don't care!" said Baby Possum. All the time he did care, and right down in his throat there was a lump that grew and grew and grew as he listened to Reddy Fox.

If you'll come down right away I'll take you home on my back and give you the finest ride you've ever had," went on Reddy Fox in his pleasant voice. "You can play I'm your horse and we'll be home in no time.

"Will you take me right straight home?" asked Baby Possum.

"Just as straight as I know how," replied Reddy Fox.

"And run as fast as the wind?" asked Baby Possum, his eyes beginning to sparkle.

"Just as fast as the wind," said Reddy, hiding a grin behind a hand

"Ah've changed mah mind," said Baby Possum.

Baby Possum thought it over. It certainly would be fun to ride home on such a fine horse as this gentleman in red. "Ah'll come," said Baby Possum, beginning to climb down the tree. Just then he looked over to the foot of the big pine where once before he had seen the funny little fellow with long ears. There he was again, shaking his head harder than before.

Baby Possum stopped and looked down. Reddy Fox was smiling up at him and Baby Possum saw all of Reddy's long, white teeth.

"Ah've changed mah mind," said Baby Possum, scrambling back to his safe, snug little hollow.

Shower as Compliment to Miss Kirkes

On Monday morning, Miss Mary Harris gave a miscellaneous shower, as a compliment to Miss Andrea Kirkes, whose wedding to Mr. Samuel Hayward takes place this evening. The verandahs and reception rooms of the home were attractive with cut flowers carrying out a color combination of yellow and white.

Mrs. Amis and Miss Wilma Knight rendered two or three appropriate vocal selections, and the guests then took part in solving an anagram, of words pertaining to bridal festivities. In this, Miss Crook won the prize, a silver bon bon dish, which she presented to Miss Kirkes.

An ice was served in the dining-room, where pink was the decorating tint. The gifts were hidden beneath a rose-cover, and were presented to the honoree with the hostess' token, a silver mayonnaise bowl

MYSTERIOUS PAINS AND ACHES

Make Life Hard to Bear for Many Paris Women.

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read a Paris case:

Mrs. J. E. Tyler, Grand Avenue, says: "A short time ago I had a bad attack of kidney trouble. I suffered from an ache in the small of my back and at times I could hardly get around to do my housework. I also had had headaches and pains in the back of my head. I purchased a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Murphy's Drug Store. Doan's helped me from the start and I didn't have to use any more than two boxes before all my aches were gone and I felt like a different person. I am glad to recommend this medicine."

LAMAR COUNTY CROP IN GOOD CONDITION

Texas Industrial Congress Report Shows Material Improvement All Over The State

According to the montly bulletin of the Texas Industrial Congress, there has been material improvement in the crop condition in the last three weeks.

All crops are from thirty to forty days late, but the farmers, even though with limited help, have made wonderful progress in planting, replanting and cultivating.

"They have buckled to it and are working every available hour; and no man may cast a slur at the Texas farmer for lack of diligence.

A lot of the cotton is not yet planted; and what is up is not in the best of condition. West Texas has largely increased the acreage, the result of the "killing" the farmers of that section made last year.

Wheat in Good Shape.

A wheat harvest of 11,566,250 bushels is forecast by the acreage and the condition at this time. Grasshoppers have done a bit of damage; but generally the harvest is coming on time.

Oats will be cut from 94,500,000 bushels to 35,473,000 bushels, which will be a serious loss.

The corn acreage is estimated at 6,628,180 acres, a reduction of some 2.5 per cent under last year, which is very small considering the lack of labor.

The peach crop was really killed this year and there will be no car load shipments.

Report for Lamar County

For Lamar county the report gives a reduction of 3 per cent in the cotton acreage; with a stand of 70 ptrcent and a condition of 57 per cent on June 1.

Of corn there is a reduction of 2 per cent in the acreage; with a stand of 89 and a condition of 77.

Of wheat the acreage is 66, the condition 73 and the probable yield is estimated at 11 bushels to the acre. The highest estimated yield in the State is 20 bushels; and that is in El Paso county.

Good Outlook for Oats

The acreage in oats is placed at 90, the condition at 87 and the probable yield at 30 bushels.

The grain sorghums show an acreage of 95 and a condition of 92.

The acreage in Irish potatoes is only 76 with a condition of 43.

The sweet potato crop shows an acreage of 101 with a condition of 83.

The labor supply is only 75 per cent of what is should be and the prevailing wage is from $2 to $2.50 per day.

The total acreage in cultivation is 95 per cent of the normal.

HIGH COST OF TAXES GROWS HIGHER DAY BY DAY

To the Voters of Lamar County:

The special session of the legislature appropriated over $7,000,000. This sum, added to that appropriated by the general session and the first called session, will in the aggregate amount to about $30,000,000.

These extraordinary appropriations must be paid by those who own property in this state. Of course, the taxpayer will not begin to feel the burden until taxpaying time. We complain about the high cost of food and clothing.

What shall we do with our government. Supposing there are about 4,000,000 men, women and children in this state, do you know that there must be paid into the state treasury more than seven dollars for each man, woman and child in order to meet these appropriations In addition to this the city and county taxes must be paid. The ordinary citizen wants to know why these conditions are necessary. The explanation is easy. Every legislature that has met for the last few years has created from five to a hundred new jobs, each of which carry a good salary with traveling expenses. The State Highway law created more than seventy-five jobs. These numerous offices, agencies, and bureaus must be supported until the people demand that they be abolished. If you indorse this extravagance, you should not vote for me for representative.

Had the committee boll worm bill been adopted, it would have carried an appropriation of between $750,000 and $1,000,000. It provided also for an army of experts and provided further that the residents of the infested districts might sue the state for damages. This bill was not adopted. The bill that was approved at the last hour carried an appropriation of only $100,000. Had I been a member of the legislature, as between the two bills, I would have voted for the bill that was passed, thereby saving the state about $800,000.

If I am elected to represent Lamar county in the next legislature, I expect to give all my time to abolishing offices, repealing laws, and opposing appropriations. I have complained abou the high cost of the necessaries of life, and I shall be consistent in that I will oppose the high cost of politics.

Respectfully,
C. A. MARTIN.

HERRERO DECLARES CARRANZA SUICIDED

Makes Statement Of Conditions To Show That Fugitive President Took Own Life

By The Associated Press:

Mexico City, June 22.—Carranza's own words shortly before his death; the position of his body when found, the nature of his wounds and the three empty cartridges, indicated the president committed suicide, according to Major Ernesto Herrero, upon whose report General Rodolfo Herrero, who is charged with responsibility for the late president's death bases his oft-repeated statement that Carranza killed himself. Ernesto Herrero made this assertion during an interview with the Associated Press correspondent today. Ernesto and Rodolfo are cousins.

Discussing the battle of Tlaxcalantongo the morning of May 21, Major Herrero said:

"Twenty minutes after the firing stopped my men and I, who had been forced to retire by the fire of Carranza's escort, knocked at the door of the president's hut. When we received no answer, we shouted we would fire if the door was not opened.

"We then received a reply assuring us of admittance, but we were ordered to have a light to avoid a surprise attack as we entered. This was done and we passed into the hut.

"Berlanga (Manuel Aguirre Berlanga), minister of the interior in President Carranza's cabinet, advanced toward us and appeared to fear we would harm him, but I assured him otherwise. From the direction of the gaze of his two or three companions, I learned in what part of the hut Carranza lay. He was lying on his right side with his hand clutching a pistol from which three shots had been fired. His shirt showed powder marks. Carranza was probably in his last agonies when we entered.

"Berlanga said that Carranza had told his companions he was wounded in the leg and that those who could had better save themselves, because he was unable to do so. Berlanga expressed belief that Carranza had committed suicide and so declared in a signed statement later. I examined the body but could find no leg wound."

General Redolfo Herrero pointed out that the wound in Carranza's chest had been made by an old fashioned pistol, which he said was found in the president's hand, and not by rifle fire. Rodolfo denied he had assigned huts to the Carranza party and asserted the bullet holes concentrated in the corner of the hut where Carranza lay "might have been made by the president's followers to throw suspicion toward me."

"Carranza's escort was capable of anything," he declared. "Only Bonillas (Ygnacio Bonillas, former ambassador at Washington), defended himself like a man."

GEOLOGICAL FAULT SLIPPED AND CAUSED EARTHQUAKE

By The Associated Press:

San Francisco, June 22.—The trembler that shattered Inglewood, Los Angeles county last night was southern California's second experience with earth shocks within three years. On April 21, 1918, the towns of San Jacinto and Hemet, in Riverside county, about seventy miles southeast of Los Angeles, were severely damaged in a series of three earthquakes. The effect was plainly felt in Los Angeles where plate glass windows were broken. An earthquake affecting the same territory occurred on December 25, 1889, and there was extensive property damage and some loss of life.

No earthquake has occurred in California in recent years, however, approaching the severity of the disaster that was visited on San Francisco on April 18, 1906, when the city was laid in ruins through the combined efforts of the earth disturbances and fires.

Laymen familiar with causes of earthquakes ascribe last night's disturbance to a slipping of the strata in the principal geological fault extending along the coast range mountains from the northern California coast about 200 miles north of San Francisco to the gult of Lower California. This fault follows the coastline closely about one hundred miles south of San Francisco when it swerves inland approximately twenty miles and gradually extends further eastward, traversing Los Angeles, Riverside and San Diego counties.

AUTHOR OF VOLSTEAD ACT DEFEATED FOR NOMINATON

St. Paul, June 22.—Congressman A. J. Volstead, republican author of the prohibition enforcement act, was defeated for re-nomination in yesterday's primary by the Rev. O. J. Kvale of Benson, non-partisan league candidate, virtually complete returns showed tonight.

This congressional upset in the seventh district almost overshadowed the unusually close race for the republican gubernatorial nomination.

J. A. O. Preus, state auditor, still had a lead of 15,000 votes in the gubernatorial race over Dr. Henrik Shipstead, non-partisan league candidate, when returns have been tabulated from more than 2,500 of the 3,195 precincts.

Rev. Kvale is a pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church. It was pointed out by friends of Kvale here tonight that he had advocated absolute prohibition for more than a score of years.

New York Cotton.

New York, June 22.—The selling movement became general and aggressive in the cotton market today and prices broke into new low ground for the movement, with October selling at 33.50, a decline of 64 points from the closing level of yesterday and of 187 points from the high level reached on the bulge of Saturday. That delivery closed at 33.60 with the general market ricelrg barely steady at a net decline of 40 to 68 points.

July was relatively weak under liquidation in preparation for notices on Friday, selling off to 36.00 or 70 points net lower, while active new crop positions showed net losses of 46 to 84 points with December selling at 32.45. Last prices showed slight rallies on July and October, but were at about the low point of the day on the later positions. Private cables reported Manchester and American selling on the decline in Liverpool and there was southern selling around the local ring.

Demand sterling, 3.98½; 60-day, 3.93½. Marks, 278.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, June 22.—The cotton market today broke for wide declines under selling for both accounts, heavy liquidation coming out on the fear that first notice day for that month, which is Friday, will bring large tenders, while other months were sold on a generally bearish view of foreign political news, brought into prominence by the weakness of English consols.

Around the opening prices were 25 to 30 points down, from which the market moved up to net advances of 10 to 16 points, but a little later it started slumping and was easy from then on. At the lowest of the day July fell to 36.25 and the list was 47 to 50 points down net. The close was at net losses for the day of 42 to 50 points.

HAD ROUGH TIME TRYING TO GO TO HARMON ROUNDUP

The candidates for county offices, who were to have begun their round-up at Harmon yesterday, made an inauspicious start. Heavy showers began to fall before noon and none of them reached their destination as far as was ascertained. They became stranded at different places along the road.

About a dozen automobiles succeeded in reaching Petty, but at that point the candidates had to leave them and return home on the train. Today is the meeting date at Petty, and a good crowd is expected, as it is on the railroad and all of the candidates will be there.

County Judge Hutchison, County Attorney Bob Eubank and Roscoe Grubbs had a pretty tough experience in trying to make the trip to Harmon. They started out in an automobile together, taking the Bonham road.

When they got in about two hundred yards of Pine creek they came across an automobile that had been abandoned in the middle of the road.

In trying to pass around it notwithstanding that they proceeded cautiously they slipped off in a ditch and all o fthem got very muddy in trying to extricate their machine. They finally had to hire a negro to pull them out.

Determined to go on to the roundup they drove to the creek and found the water too high to cross. While waiting for it to run down they observed an immense black cloud looming up behind, and at last realizing that it was useless to try to proceed, they turned around and beat the rain to town a few minutes.

TOWN AND COUNTRY GET A THOROUGH DRENCHING.

There was a great surfeit of rain in Lamar county yesterday, there being two very heavy downpours in addition to the lighter showers. One of them was between 11 and 12 o'clock in the forenoon and the other between 2 and 3 p. m.

The elements were very threatening during the afternoon rain and there were several rumors that storms had occurred. For a few minutes the water was so deep on Bonham street near 15th that the street cars and automobiles had to stop. The union depot was almost surrounded by water for awhile.

R. A. Miller, the government weather observer, stated that the rainfall from 7 o'clock, a. m., until 7 p. m., was 3.05 inches, there being one inch in the forenoon and 2.05 in the afternoon.

TAGGART HAS RIGHT IDEA OF WET AND DRY QUESTION

By The Associated Press:

Chicago, June 22. —A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general, and candidate for the presidential nomination, was one of a host of democratic leaders passing through Chicago today enroute to the national convention at San Francisco.

"There is no dissension in the democratic party and none is expected," Mr. Palmer said, "all is harmony."

The attorney general refused to discuss his own candidacy, but Warren VanDyke of Harrisburg, secretary of the Pennsylvania state committee, said that Mr. Palmer would enter the convention the strongest of all the candidates, with 74 of the state's 76 delegates pledged. He said Palmer would have 400 votes on the first roll call.

Tom Taggart, national committeeman from Indiana and chairman of the Indiana delegation, also was in Chicago today on his way west. He expressed the opinion that "the wet and dry question is no longer a political issue, but is simply a question of law."

SAVED BABY'S LIFE AT COST OF HER OWN

By The Associated Press.

Texarkana, June 21.—The final chapter of a mother's sacrifice for her baby was written when Mrs. Lynne Frazier died recently while enroute to a hospital in Minnesota for treatment of progressive paralysis.

Mrs. Mayo sustained injuries to her shoulders and spine when she was thrown from an overturning automobile with her infant in her arms near here several weeks ago. Those who saw the accident said that Mrs. Frazier cuddled the baby, which came through uninjuried, in her arms and made no effort to use her hands to break the force of her fall.

LIGHTNING BUG CAUSED WOMAN TO LEAVE CAR.

By The Associated Press:

Brenham, Texas, June 22.—A negro woman who works on a farm near here explained, after she had risen from the roadside where she had landed upon her face, that while she still favors automobile rides, she is a little nervous about them, and that when a lightning bug glowed along the hood of a car in which she was riding at a fair rate of speed she thought that the driver had set the car afire, and she, fearing an explosion, was obsessed with a sudden desire to leave the automobile.

Death of an Infant.

EVANGELIST POSTPONES HIS LECTURE ON SECOND COMING

On account of the inclement weather, Evangelist Taylor of the Bible Chautauqua postponed until Friday night his lecture on "The Signs of Christ's Coming," which was to be given last night.

For the benefit of the few who came in spite of the unsettled weather, Mr. Taylor gave a Bible study on "Present Truth." He brought out the fact that in every age of the world's history God has had a special message which was at that particular time a "present truth". "Present truth in Noah's time was the message of an approaching flood. To the inhabitants of Sodom it was the message of destruction. In the days of John the Baptist, it was the message to prepare for Christ's first advent. Today, Mr. Taylor asserted, God's present truth is the message of a soon returning Savior.

Mr. Taylor called particular attention to the Biblical admonition to be established in the present truth.

Thursday night Mrs. Moran will give her weekly health lecture. Her subject will be, "Nature's Most Perfect Food." Samples of healthful cookery will be served.

AUTOMOBILE BANDITS GANG IS DISPERSED.

By The Associated Press:

Dallas, June 22.—One of the most notorious bands of automobile bandits and thieves that ever operated in Texas was broken up, according to local officers, by the arrest of six men and a woman in various parts of the State recently.

Officers said that one of the men made a confession which cleared up safe robberies in various states, two of which ended with running fights between the robbers and officers, and resulted in the recovery of eleven automobiles, five of which were stolen from Austin, one from Dallas, one from Terrell, two from Greenville and one from Ardmore, Oklahoma.

"I am now of the opinion," said a Dallas detective, "that this clean-up will stop a lot of automobile thefts. This gang did not confine their efforts to automobiles, but only stole them to use them on various robberies. The lineup of the robberies was so complete that only for the confession of several of the men arrested, we would have had a lot of trouble tracing the different robberies."

MUST NOT SPEED UP EVEN ON THE ROAD TO CHURCH.

By The Associated Press:

Austin, Texas, June 22.—When a young man of this city was brought into police court on Sunday morning under a charge of speeding, he explained to the judge that he had discovered that he was about to be late for church, had stepped upon his accelerator to make up the lost time, and for that reason he pleaded not guilty.

"Five dollars and costs," was the judge's answer.

The defendant gave notice of appeal.

WILL IMPROVE THE MT. PLEASANT ROAD

Bridges and Track Are To Be Repaired and Equipment Is Being Overhauled and Painted

C. F. Collins, general freight and passenger agent of the Paris and Mt. Pleasant railroad, stated yesterday that for the next two months the company expected to work all of the track laborers it could get.

Its intention is within that time to get the road in first class shape so as not to have any trouble when the fall rains set in, and to be able to move the cotton crop. The company expects to get in shape to handle freight promptly and to move every bit of it on the same day that it is offered.

The rolling stock and other railroad equipment is being overhauled, the passenger equipment is being repainted, and the station buildings and cotton platforms are being repaired.

The company has the material on the around and expects to begin next week with a piledriver and bridge gang to practically rebuild all of the bridges.

Within the two months that the company expects to work all the track labor it can get it will put sand ballast on about twenty miles of the track through the black mud and strengthen all of the fills and clean out the cuts and drain ditches.

The proposition to put on motor cars for passenger service is still under consideration, but it was stated that there was nothing definite to give out yet.

Receiver Wortham has been causing a great many complimentary things to be said of him by people down the line and at the other end of it on account of the way in which he took the road in hand and went to work to have it converted into a real road.

LIGHTNING STRIKES HOUSE IN TWO SEPARATE PLACES

A five-room bungalow nearly new in the Gibbons and Braden addition on Magnolia street, which was occupied by W. R. Shelton and family, was struck by lightning in two places during the hard rain a little after 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

It was at each end of the house eight or ten feet from the flue that the roof was struck. At one of the places the bolt went through the roof and tore up the attic. At the other place only the roof was torn.

It was claimed that a little smoke was seen to issue from under the roof after the lightning struck, and the family fearing that the house had been set on fire, an alarm was turned in. When the firemen arrived, however, no sign of fire was to be seen.

The members of the family were at home when the house was struck, but none of them experienced the slightest shock, it was stated.

NEW FORD PROJECT BEGINS PRODUCTION

Blast Furnace and Steel Mills Will Employ Thousands.

Henry Ford II, Fires First Furnace.

Henry Ford, II, three-year-old son of Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, became an active participant in the great Ford industries recently when he scratched a match and lighted the oil-soaked excelsior that set off the first of the two big blast furnaces at the Ford River Rouge Plant near Detroit. Henry Ford held Henry II in his arms and helped him touch off the fire. Mrs. Henry Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel B. Ford and a number of friends were present at the ceremony which marked the opening of another link of the Ford industries.

The blast furnace and rolling mills site occupies close to 200 acres of ground; already 12,000 men are at work in the plant, but thousands more will be needed when the construction of the huge undertaking is completed. Four more furnaces are under way; the skeleton of a new foundry, which will be one of the world's largest, stretches along one side of the plant; coke ovens and by-products plants already are producing.

This new field of activity bids fair to grow to as great an institution as the Ford Automobile and Tractor factories; and will augment the production of those plants in no small way.

The unique plan behind this new Ford industry provides for eliminating considerable waste time and labor in manufacturing steel. It is expected that the iron ore poured into the furnaces will emerge as Ford parts, without ever having been cooled or made into pig iron as is usually the practice.

This first blast furnace will produce 500 tons of iron every 24 hours. To make it 1,000 tons of iron ore, 250 tons of limestone and 500 tons of coke are used. Fifty million cubic feet of gas will be developed daily as a by-product, and this will be used to heat to 1400 degrees the 40,000 cubic feet of air which will be forced through the molten mass every hour under a 20-pound pressure. Ten million five hundred thousand gallons of water will be used daily to cool the base of the furnace.

Work on the second furnace is being rushed and it was announced that it too, will be making iron within 30 days. Foundation work is well under way for three additional furnaces, making a total of five, contemplated to complete the group at the Ford Rouge plant. These furnaces will all be of the most modern design and will be numbered amongst the world's largest. The consumption of iron and steel for Ford cars is estimated to be approximately 3000 tons every 24 hours.

The ceremony which marked the firing up of the huge smelter carried Henry Ford one step nearer to a realization of a dream he has had for years—to see his own ships carrying the materials from the source of supply and to see these raw materials proceed through the various steels to the finished product, his automobile and tractor.

Ore for the furnaces will come down the lakes from Minnesota and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and be dumped into giant concrete bins built on the bank of the River Rouge. From the bin it is run directly into the top of the furnace on an elevator called the "skip hoist". Limestone also is to come in by boat. Vast quantities of limestone and ore already have been stored up for the furnace.

The charge which was touched off had been in the furnace for a month, gradually being heated to the point where the "blowing" could take place.

The meeting closed with a prayer offered by Mrs. H. F. Hancock.

During the social hour afterward, the hostesses served cake and cream.

PRISONERS BROUGHT FROM BOWIE COUNTY

Sheriff Fears For Safety Of Men Convicted Of Murder So Puts Them In Jail Here

Sheriff G. A. Richardson of Bowie county and Will H. Davis, his chief deputy, brought three prisoners to Paris on the westbound Texas and Pacific train last night and lodged them in the Lamar county jail for safe keeping.

The names of the prisoners are Boy Barnes and Tom and Simeon Hays, the latter being brothers. Their ages range from 22 to 32 years. They are charged with the murder of Tom Smith on the night of April 8 while he and another young man who had been to a dance with two young girls at Corley's nine miles south of New Boston, were returning home.

Boy Barnes was convicted and was sentenced to ninety-nine years. Simeon Hays was convicted and was given fifty-five years.

Sheriff Richardson stated after reaching Paris last night that indignation had been running high ever since the killing. Nearly six weeks was consumed in the trial of the two men who were convicted and all the time sentiment became more inflamed by the prolongation of the trial and rehearsal of the facts.

When the case of Tom Hays, the third defendant, was called yesterday he was granted a change of venue to Cass county. Some displeasure being manifested in the postponement of his trial and in granting a change of venue Sheriff Richardson said he thought it might be best to bring the prisoners to the Lamar county jail and let them stay here awhile.

DIVISION OF INDEMNITY TO BE POSTPONED TO JULY 2

By The Associated Press:

Boulogne, June 22.—An official communique issued after adjournment of the conference of allied premiers here today says:

"The conference was held at the Villa Bella from 10 o'clock this morning to 1 o'clock this afternoon. The question of the German indemnities and its division among the allies was examined further. It was decided that French, British, Italian, Belgian and Serbian experts meet in Paris in order to determine a basis for common proposals which will be submitted to the allies at Brussels on July 2, where a final agreement must be reached before the Spa conference.

"The second question discussed was that of disarmament. The council approved the text of the note submitted by military experts and also assented to their decision regarding the destruction of war material and the date upon which there may be resumption to construction of airplane material.

"Non-execution of the treaty clauses dealing with the delivery of coal was again examined and discussed. It will be a subject discussed at the Brussels conference with the advice of the reparations commission."
